

Languages, Literacy and Communication

Talk for Writing Fiction and Non-Fiction Texts

Voice 21 Activities / Oracy Activities

Recount Writing Description of settings

Narrative Poetry – Study of The Highwayman by Alfred Noyes.

Drama Activities.

Welsh Myths and Legends

Welsh focus – Fi fy hun

Spanish focus - ¡Hola! ¿Qué tal?

Health and Well-being

PE Scheme activities

Sports Leaders delivering sessions for peers

Peer Coaching

Swimming

Cricket Sessions

Building learning power and establishing a growth mindset

Amelia Stone Meditation Resources

The Wheel of Wellbeing

The importance of exercise on our mental health and physical wellbeing.

Humanities

Explore how different types of evidence give us information about the past.

Ordering events and chronological order.

The Bubonic Plague and other key pandemics.

The Bubonic Plague in Pembrokeshire.

The key events and people of Carew Castle.

The Great Tournament.

The Battle of Bosworth Fields.

Exploring historical landmarks in our local community.

Explore and discover religions of the world

Mathematics and Numeracy

Number and Place Value to beyond 1.000,000.

Written addition and subtraction

Mental multiplication and division

Long multiplication activities

Problem solving, reasoning and algebra

2D and 3D Shapes

Collating and interpreting data sets

Creating graphs and calculating the mode, median, mean and range of the data set.

Daily mental maths activities

Weekly Big Maths Assessments

Kingfisher Class Autumn Term 2023 Topic: Princes, Pestilence and Plague

Science and Technology

Science investigation – Microorganisms, germs and viruses.

The life cycles of plants and animals

Keeping ourselves safe and healthy

The Eatwell Plate and healthy eating (Food groups).

Structures - Design and make a model of a castle with realistic moving parts and features.

Generating design specifications that link to real life situations and show a full coverage of all aspects of the design process.

Expressive Arts

Natural art – Studying and analysing famous paintings and pieces of work that have animals and nature as a focus. Describing similarities and differences to their own work.

Exploring the work of artist Andy Goldsworthy and using it to inspire own individual responses.

Charanga Cymru – Learning to perform pieces of music using the recorder.

Composing, performing and appraising own innovated musical pieces using a correct musical terminology.