

Languages, Literacy and Communication

- Non-chronological reports – Carew Tidal Mill
- Narrative writing – adventure story set in Carew Castle
- Poetry – nature poems by local author Nicola Davies
- Class book written by Pembrokeshire author and chosen by pupils
- Balanced argument/discussion – should we shop locally? Should we use more renewable energies?
- Narrative writing – based on class reader
- Guided reading activities
- Oracy activities – debating, hot seating, Cymraeg -

Health and Well-being

- Ironman – local competitors
- Growing produce on our grounds and in our polytunnel
- Nutritious and healthy foods – how this links to our health and wellbeing
- Children’s Rights
- Children’s Mental Health Week- identifying ways to help our mental health
- Staying safe online
- Paralympic Games – diversity, respect, perseverance – Welsh Paralympians
- Team games and ball skills (tag Rugby, netball, hockey) and gymnastics and movement skills.

Humanities

- History of Carew Tidal Mill – how was it used?
- What did the local area look like when the mill was in use?
- Local census – who lives in Pembrokeshire? What do they do?
- Changes in our local area over time
- Geography – mapping local landmarks, identifying our location nationally and globally
- Carew Airfield and Control Tower – Remembrance Day
- Christmas in church and chapel – similarities and differences

Swan Class Autumn Term 2024 Topic: On Our Doorstep

Mathematics and Numeracy

- Place value:
 - Representing and making numbers
 - Partitioning numbers
 - Finding more/less than
 - Estimate, order and compare numbers
 - Rounding to the nearest
- Addition and subtraction:
 - Column addition
 - Column subtraction
- Big Maths – continue to develop key basic facts through Learn Its, CLIC and Safe Challenges
- Multiplication tables recall

Science and Technology

- Bread making – link to milled flour
- Renewable power, Hydro power stations in Wales – Port of Milford Haven
- Forces investigation
- Materials and their properties
- Nature on our doorstep – native birds, trees and plants to Britain
- School nature watch
- Local beaches – local marine life - Darwin Centre
- Databases and graphing – linked to data collected through nature watch and native birds, trees and plants

Expressive Arts

- Illustrations and artwork of Jackie Morris (local writer, illustrator and artist)
- Artwork based on local landmarks
- Studying the artwork of Dorian Spencer Davies
- Studying local and Welsh music
- Medieval vs modern musical instruments
- Studying medieval music
- Creating our own Coats of Arms
- Drama linked to myths and legends from Carew Castle
- Performing in Christmas Production – songs and drama